120 N. Gatewood Street, Lawrenceburg, KY 40342

January 24- January 25, 2026
3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

As Catholic disciples of Jesus Christ and His Church, we respond to our Lord's Invitation to be faithful in prayer, celebrate the Sacraments, deepen our faith through lifelong formation, serve those in need, and invite others to the fullness of the Catholic faith.

St Lawrence Formation

Adult Sunday School meets this week weather permitting. We will continue discussing the book entitled In the School of the Holy Spirit, by Fr. Jacques Philippe. It is a very practical book in how to grow in holiness and be attuned to the Holy Spirit as it leads us to become who God made us to be!

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation Adults) meets at 11am on Sunday weather permitting in Gabriel Hall conference room. If you are interested in becoming Catholic, this is the program for you. Registration and information will begin this year's formation. This program is for adults 18 years and older.

Youth Group meets on Fridays from 6-8pm. Come join us for fun, formation, friendship and activities in the Family Life Center. Text STLAWYOUTH to 84576 to join. The Youth Group enjoy many activities throughout the year. Schedules are available in the narthex.

NO CCD THIS WEEKEND Classes will resume Feb 1 at 11am in Gabriel Hall classrooms. 2027 Confirmation class has begun and will join the High School group to start.

St Lawrence Reading Scripture

The Book of Proverbs

This month, our parish will be reading through the book of Proverbs. It's a deceptively simple book and there is a lot to gain from it, but here are a few tips to help you along.

Introduction to the Book of Proverbs

When you think of the Old Testament, likely several things will immediately come to mind. Perhaps, you first think of the great stories of the Old Testament, stories with miracles and heroes (and more than a few villains). Or perhaps your mind goes to all of the commandments and laws, well over 600 of them in the first 5 books alone. Or maybe even your first thought goes to the prophets who promise the coming of our Lord.

But I would be willing to bet that one of the last things that comes to your mind are the books of wisdom. Which is too bad, because while the books of history tell us what it means for us to be the people of God, and the books of the prophets give us a glimpse into the very heart of God (both important things to meditate upon!), it is the books of wisdom that ask the question, "What does it mean to live a good life?"

And isn't that what we all want to figure out? We prepare for the Catholic life through classes like OCIA or CCD, which give us a solid moral and intellectual understanding of the faith. But anyone who's attempted to take our faith seriously knows that the reality of actually living the Catholic life is more than just knowing Catholic trivia and going to Mass once a week. The good life, the life that God has made us for, is hard. It's rarely straight-forward. It has to be thought about carefully and then lived out with discipline. And none of that comes easy.

But this is why the book of Proverbs exists: to challenge us to think more clearly about the good life. And while Proverbs is far from a practical guide (it's not like anything you'll find in the self-help section of a bookstore), the Proverbs sit in our scripture as a starting point for looking carefully at the world around us and asking ourselves how we're supposed to navigate it.

This week in Proverbs

Does wisdom look for us, or do we need to search for it? Sometimes when the Proverbs speak of wisdom or understanding, it talks as if it were a quality to be gained or a goal to be achieved. The book tells us to “seek it like silver, and search for it as for hidden treasures” (Prov. 2:4), which I think makes sense to us. In our world we often hear about the importance of “educating yourself” or are encouraged to “do your own research.” The truth is out there and it’s up to us to find it! However, while seeking wisdom and understanding is important, far more often in this book it is wisdom itself that is doing the searching. Recall in the very beginning of Proverbs, when Wisdom is personified as a woman crying out in the streets, saying, “Give heed to my reproof; I will pour out my thoughts to you; I will make my words known to you.” (Prov 1:20-23). Or later in chapter 9, when she is spoken of as a woman who has prepared a great feast and is begging for us to join her; Wisdom shouts, “You that are simple, turn in here! Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed!

Lay aside immaturity and live and walk in the way of insight!” (Prov. 9:4-6) We tend to think of wisdom as something we must pursue, but more often the Proverbs speaks of wisdom as something that chases us. Wisdom is gained, not through our own gumption and initiative, and certainly not because we’re intellectually gifted or went to a good school, but through the rebukes and corrections of those around us. Even (and especially!) from those whom we don’t want to hear it.

In this way, the Proverbs tell us that the real trick to growing in wisdom is to make sure we respond well when it comes. When the Proverbs talk about the folly of one who is quick to anger, or the foolishness of a lazy person, these are important because anger and apathy are so often the obstacles to receiving corrections well. Or when the Proverbs instruct us in how to relate to others, whether it be our family, our peers, or those who live on the margins of society, it is because those are the people from whom correction and rebuke will often come; but they can’t correct us if we don’t have an intact relationship with them.

Wisdom ought to be sought after, of course. But according to the Proverbs, the real trick to growing in wisdom is being receptive to it, regardless of who it comes from (because all wisdom ultimately comes from God!). And that is much easier said than done.

St. Lawrence Serves

Open Hands Community Food Pantry (1111 Industry Rd, Lawrenceburg, KY 40342) serves dinner every Tuesday and Thursday from 6-7 PM. All are welcome. Thank you to our dedicated volunteers who help to prepare and serve. And thank you to everyone for whom, without your donations we would not be able to participate in such a wonderful ministry.

Martha's Ministry helps our parishioners who are sick or have come home from the hospital and could use a home cooked meal and a visit from fellow parishioners from church. We can also bring communion and assist with community events such as dinner at the library. Please contact Sue Litkenhus to join this beautiful ministry.

The Knights of Columbus gathered to help a parishioner in the community. They worked together to clean out the leaves and debris from the gutters on this home in Lawrenceburg. If you are interested in joining the Knights, contact Johnny Benningfield.

UNDERGARMENT AND CLOTHING DRIVE

Anderson United is a FREE community clinic hosted by participating local Christian churches in Anderson County working together to serve our neighbors by providing for both their physical and spiritual needs.

This year we are again requesting NEW socks and underwear as well as gently used, clean clothing.

NEW socks and undergarments are the most requested items from our clothing closet and were greatly appreciated by all who received them at the last clinic.

What is needed?

We are collecting NEW pairs of underwear and NEW pairs of socks.

We are in need of all sizes for girls, boys, women and men.

Health Department regulations require these to be new.

Gently used, clean clothing, especially infant, children, and plus size adult clothing but all sizes are welcome.

When is it needed?

To help us organize your generous donations of socks and undergarments and clothing, please bring your items to church by Sunday, February 22nd.

Please deposit your donated socks and undergarments in the Anderson United basket in the narthex
Clothing items should be placed in the large box in Blanford Hall
