Adult Sunday School meets on Sundays at 11am. The most important 2000 words ever spoken or written, Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. Our book discussion will be from The Sermon on the Mount by Frank Matera. Saint Augustine once described the Sermon on the Mount as "the perfect measure of the Christian life." Taking his cue from Augustine, Frank Matera provides an exposition of the sermon for contemporary readers who wish to use the sermon as the standard by which they live their lives every day. Join us on Sunday at 11 am as we explore this amazing book. More books are available.

St Lawrence Family Formation

If I were to ask you, "Who is in charge of raising kids?" most people wouldn't hesitate to say, "the parents!" Because of course it's the parents, who else would it be? And then if I were to ask you, "Who is in charge of raising kids in the Catholic faith?" still most people would quickly answer, "the parents...but maybe with some help from the Church..." And that also makes good sense; after all, it takes a village to raise a child.

But then if I were to ask you, "HOW does someone raise their kids in the Catholic faith?" Suddenly things become a lot less clear.

For a long time, the Church has played an important role in supporting parents in their efforts to raise their kids well. Through programs like CCD and sacramental prep and even youth ministry, we've got lots of programs where you can take your kids and have another adult help to pass on the faith to your kids. But the Church doesn't always have a lot in the way of helping the parents themselves to be better, more faithful Catholics parents who are raising faithful Catholic kids. But we're going to try to change that. we've created a parents group that meets during the CCD hour. For this first year of the group, we'll be reading and discussing the book Forming Families, Forming Saints by Fr. Carter Griffin (who Fr. Steve went to seminary with). In this book, Fr. Griffin takes the best of our tradition's wisdom in forming holy men and women, and begins to ask the question of what that might look like in a family setting.

This is not some academic class, no one is going to be lecturing on parental theory, instead it's a group of parishioners coming together to discuss what it actually looks like to be Catholic parents raising kids in a Catholic home. We will meet in the Family Life Center each week that CCD is in session. Books will cost $10 and be on sale after mass in the Family Life Center. Feel free to contact Michael Armstrong (marmstrong@cdlex.org) if you have any questions.

St Lawrence Reading Scripture

The Minor Prophets

Introduction

The writings of the prophets are where we truly get to see the heart of God on display. However, they aren't always an easy set of books to read. The background for all of the writings of the prophets is the Covenant, the agreement between God and the Israelites where God promises to protect his people and make them prosper, and in return they agree to live by his ways. He will be our God, and we will be his people.

The covenant of the Old Testament is the whole framework around which our religion is built. It's where God makes known his desire to know and love us and tells us what it looks like to walk with him in the life that we were made for. However, here's the problem: The covenant only works if both sides are faithful, both we and God. And the scriptures make clear that God has been nothing but faithful to us. But we haven't always been so keen on keeping our side of things. Which is where the prophets come in. We have this image of a prophet as a kind of fortune teller. But the reality is that the prophets are those whom God has sent to warn Israel that they aren't keeping the covenant. The prophets give warning that, according to the terms of the covenant laid out by Moses, failure to keep the covenant, especially by chasing after other gods and idols, means God will cast them out and their nation will be destroyed. Which is exactly what happened. As generations passed by the Israelites strayed further and further from God, until he finally withdrew his protection and allowed his people to be conquered by other nations. But there's the twist. Though God is constantly warning the Israelites of their impending destruction if they do not change their ways, he also promises that their downfall will never be the end of the story. No matter how faithless the Israelites may become, God will never give up on them and will always work hard to bring his people back to him. And we see that come to its ultimate fulfillment with the New Covenant instituted by Jesus. Sin and transgression are overcome once and for all and we have a sure path back to our creator. Over the next month, we'll be reading from a few of the "minor prophets". Through these samplings we'll see this progression of prophets, ranging from warnings from Hosea and Joel, to promises of future restoration in books like Haggai and Malachi.

Hosea

The book of Hosea is written to remind the people of God to keep the covenant. The book is written with a contrast of blessings and curses, but nothing in Hosea is new; he is just reminding the Israelites of the terms of the covenant of Moses. So far God is pretty disappointed in how faithless the people have been. And God is reminding the people here that, just as promised, destruction is coming for those who reject his ways. But he is also reassuring us that even if this destruction comes to his people, it won't last forever. Through it he will bring his people back to him.

Joel

Similar to Hosea, Joel is reminding the people that destruction is the punishment for breaking the covenant, but also like Hosea, Joel is promising future deliverance. What makes Joel stand out is how it runs alongside Deuteronomy 32, pulling straight from the promises of the original covenant itself.

Micah

The book of Micah is written shortly before the fall of Israel and Judah to surrounding empires. After the prophets before him warned that the people were not keeping the covenant, and therefore God would allow their destruction, Micah proclaims that the time for warning has passed and judgement has now come. Israel will be destroyed (and was, indeed, conquered by her neighbors). But as with all prophets, there is still hope. This destruction isn't the final word for the people of God, but God repeats his vow that he will restore them again.

Haggai

This book appears odd at first glance, it's mostly concerned with construction of a temple, which is odd given that the people of God have been exiled from the promised land and couldn't build a temple even if they wanted to. But the message of the prophet is clear, the time of being disciplined has come to an end, and the time to rebuild is here. However, the real restoration isn't about making a new temple of wood and stone, rather the true rebuilding of the people will be as their hearts turn back to God.

Malachi

A fitting book to end this series of prophets, God assures the people that he still loves them and intends to restore the covenant. He reminds the people where they went wrong in the first place but also encourages the people that he is a God that judges according to the heart. If we repent and return to him, we will always find a loving and forgiving God.

St. Lawrence Serves

Open hands Community Food Pantry (1111 Industry Rd, Lawrenceburg, KY 40342) serves dinner every Tuesday and Thursday from 6-7 PM. All are welcome. Thank you to our dedicated volunteers who help to prepare and serve. And thank you to everyone for whom, without your donations we would not be able to participate in such a wonderful ministry.

Martha's Ministry was started at St. Lawrence Catholic Church around 2010. This is a church ministry to help our parishioners who are sick, bedridden, or have come home from the hospital and could use a home cooked meal and a visit from fellow parishioners from church. We want them to know that our church is there to support them and are interested in their recovery. We would welcome more members to help make the meals or help with delivery. If you are interested in helping with this ministry, we could use more people. Please contact Sue Litkenhus for more information.

The St. Lawrence Prayer Committee is a group of dedicated and prayerful parishioners who pray for the people on the parish prayer list. Each parishioner on the prayer list is paired up with a prayer committee member, your prayer partner, who prays especially for you. If anyone has a special prayer request, you are invited to add it to our prayer request book in the Narthex. This book is placed in front of the altar during Mass on Sundays as a reminder to all of us to pray for the needs of our community. If you are interested in helping, please contact Betty Butler at butiu20@aol.com

The Transportation Committee Help wanted: The Transportation Committee is looking for additional drivers to take parishioners to doctor's appointments or church. Please call Jeff Wedding (502-598-9507) or Andrea Dull (256-337-6658) to volunteer or get further information.

St. Barnabas was known as 'the Encourager.' The St. Barnabas Committee's purpose is to encourage young people associated with our parish who are living away from their family. St Barnabas Committee meets at 4:30pm the 2nd Tuesday of the month in Blandford Hall. If you have any questions, feel free to contact Carolyn Bond at 859-771-3237 (call or text) or at carolynTbond@hotmail.com. All are welcome. Scan the QR Code to add a family member.

Strengthening Our Mission: How the Diocesan Annual Appeal Supports St. Lawrence

The Catholic Diocese of Lexington serves a uniquely diverse region, Central Kentucky's growing communities and the mountainous, rural areas of Eastern Kentucky. These two regions stand in stark contrast, yet together they offer profound opportunities for faith, evangelization, and compassionate outreach.

In Appalachia, poverty and unemployment rates are 75% higher than the national average. Although Catholics are few, the Church is widely recognized as a source of comfort, stability, and hope for all people, regardless of background or belief. This mission of presence and mercy is only possible through the generosity of faithful stewards across our diocese.

Of our 59 parishes and missions, nearly 40 rely on external funding simply to meet daily operating expenses. Each year, the Diocese provides more than $1.4 million to sustain parishes, schools, and outreach ministries in the mountains. This support is made possible through the Diocesan Annual Appeal (DAA), and through parishioners like you who give so generously.

The need continues to grow. Your support ensures that the Church remains present where it is needed most.

St. Lawrence: A Parish Blessed by Your Generosity

This year, St. Lawrence received $8,263.28 through the 2025 Diocesan Annual Appeal. These funds directly strengthen our parish and allow us to participate more fully in the mission of the wider Church.

2025 DAA Benefits to St. Lawrence

- $4,111.84 — Our 50% share back for exceeding our original goal of $12,300 by $8,223.67
- $1,211.44 — For welcoming new DAA participants
- $2,940.00 — Mission and Ministry Grant funding

These blessings are not just numbers, they represent real ministry, real people, and real impact to St. Lawrence!

What Your Support Makes Possible

Through the DAA, St. Lawrence helps sustain vital ministries across the Diocese of Lexington, including:

- Salaries and benefits for priests and parish life directors serving in Appalachia
- Tuition assistance for students in need, enabling them to attend Catholic schools
- Priest retirement care
- Seminarian education and formation
- Hispanic Ministry through the Centro de San Juan Diego
- College campus ministries at Berea College, Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University, and the University of Kentucky

- Operational support for Catholic Charities and emergency assistance programs
- Food pantries serving families throughout Eastern Kentucky
- Home repair and assistance programs for those living in poverty

Every gift—large or small—helps ensure that Christ’s love is present in the mountains, in our cities, and here at St. Lawrence.

Join Us in Strengthening the Mission

Together, we can keep the ministry of the Diocese of Lexington moving forward and make this year’s Diocesan Annual Appeal our strongest yet.

You can donate online using the link provided, or by picking up a DAA envelope in the narthex.

Your generosity allows St. Lawrence to be a parish of hope, service, and faith—both here at home and throughout Eastern Kentucky.

Thank You!
